Starting out as a Chess Club

Any new Chess Club will need the following structure in order to become a member of the district chess federation (in this instance Chess Western Province). Here are some guidelines to help you start your new chess club.

For further information and advice on starting a chess club, please contact Eugene Steenkamp (082 807 3029) or Deon Solomons (060 740 8000) or email info@chesswesternprovince.co.za.

1. Club Constitution

- There are copies of Club Constitutions available upon request
- A Club Constitution should largely mirror that of the custodian district chess federation (in this instance that of Chess Western Province)
- This founding document should be tabled and accepted at a founding elective Annual General Meeting of the chess club
- Future Annual General Meetings, Ordinary General Meetings and Special General Meetings are guided by the Club Constitution

2. Elective Annual General Meeting

- Notice of an Elective General Meeting, and the Agenda of the AGM should be circulated to prospective club members, preferably 30 days in advance of the meeting date
- Notice of the founding AGM should contain: Date and Time, Venue
- Notice of the Meeting should be read out at the start of the AGM
- The Agenda of the AGM should be to conduct the business of founding the Chess Club
- An Attendance Register should be circulated amongst members that attend the AGM for signing
- Four Executive Members to be elected at the Elective AGM:
  - President
  - Deputy President
  - General Secretary
  - Treasurer
- Minutes of the Founding Elective AGM should be kept, and circulated to members for ratification and acceptance at the second Club AGM
- Copy of the minutes of the founding elective AGM should be forwarded as part of credentials in the event that the Chess Club wishes to affiliate with the custodian district chess federation (in this case, Chess Western Province)

3. Club Executive Committee

- The Chess Club Constitution are upheld by its ordinary members and enforced by the Club Executive Committee
- The Club executive Committee consists of the President, Deputy President, general Secretary and any other co-opted members
- The Club Executive Committee manages operations, functions and calendar events of the Chess Club.
- Elective AGMs are held biannually, in accordance with the Club Constitution
- The Club Executive Committee ensures the smooth running of the club, adherence to club regulations and FIDE chess regulations
- All Club meetings and federation meetings have to be attended by delegates serving on the Club Executive Committee
- Club Executive Committee details form part of club credentials forwarded to the district chess federation (in this instance, Chess Western Province)

4. Club Playing Venue

- It is the responsibility of every Chess Club to secure a safe, centrally located chess club playing venue
- The physical address and/or GPS coordinates of the Club Playing Venue should be reflected on the club letterhead and club website
- Conditions at the Club Playing Venue should by and large be conducive for Chess
- Most of the Club Calendar events should take place at the Club venue
- The Chess Club should sustain weekly or at least biweekly events at the Club Playing Venue
- Good locations for Club Playing Venues include
  - School, university or college premises
  - libraries
  - Community or church halls
